

The Leadership & Influence Climb

Teens–adult · teams, clubs, workplaces · 30 minutes · one screen, the free game, this page

For your homeschool table — a 30-minute lesson, zero prep. Open the free game on any screen and follow the five steps. Where a step says “the room/the group,” read it as your family; where it says “host,” that’s you.

1 · THE HOOK (3 min)

“Think of the best leader you’ve ever followed — coach, boss, sergeant, grandmother. What ONE thing made you follow?”

2 · PLAY TOGETHER (12 min)

Climb ten questions; whenever the group splits on an answer, stop — leadership questions that split a room are the ones worth an extra minute.

Play together: the group votes before anyone clicks, and every explanation is read aloud — the explanation is the lesson.

3 · THE TALK (8 min)

1. Is influence a skill or a character trait — can a bad person be a “good” leader?
2. What’s the difference between influencing and manipulating? (Pair with the Manipulation Gauntlet kit for a powerful double-session.)
3. Who do YOU influence right now, whether you meant to or not?

4 · SOLO CLIMB (5 min)

Five questions solo.

5 · THE TAKEAWAY (2 min)

“People follow who you are before they follow what you say.”

Homework: This week, publicly credit someone else’s work once — leadership rep #1.

THE TEACHING CREED

You are not the expert; the game is. Your job is to vote last, read aloud well, and ask “why?” one more time than feels natural. Celebrate wrong answers loudly — in here, wrong is where the lesson lives.

GENO — the GSU tutor you can talk to, free, 24/7 in 32 languages — can explain any answer a second way.
